

MysteryQuest 36

Evaluation Materials 1 (Rubric)

Assessing Changes and Similarities in Impressions

	Outstanding	Very Good	Competent	Satisfactory	In-progress
Identifies relevant statements from documents	Identifies the most important and relevant statements in the documents about impressions of Thomson for both time periods.	Identifies relevant statements including most of the important ones in the documents about impressions of Thomson for both time periods.	Identifies some relevant statements in the documents about impressions of Thomson for both time periods, but important statements are omitted.	Identifies some relevant statements in the documents about impressions of Thomson for both time periods but many important statements are omitted.	Identifies very few relevant statements in the documents about impressions of Thomson for both time periods.
Notes changing and similar impressions	Identifies many important and plausible changes and similarities between the two periods.	Identifies some important and plausible changes and similarities between the two periods.	Identifies a several plausible changes and similarities between the two periods.	Identifies a few plausible changes and similarities between the two periods.	Identifies almost no plausible changes and similarities between the two periods.
Offers plausible conclusions about most significant changes	Selects most significant changes that are highly plausible and highly justifiable in light of the evidence provided.	Selects most significant changes that are plausible and justifiable in light of the evidence provided.	Selects most significant changes that are somewhat plausible in light of the evidence provided	Selects most significant changes that are barely justifiable given the evidence provided.	Selects most significant changes that are implausible and not justifiable given the evidence provided.